

Statement of Congressman Ron Paul

United States House of Representatives

Statement Opposing the Iran Refined Petroleum Sanctions Act

December 15, 2009

I rise in strongest opposition to this new round of sanctions on Iran, which is another significant step toward

This legislation seeks to bar from doing business in the United States any foreign entity that sells refined

Are we to conclude, with this in mind, that China or its major state-owned corporations will be forbidden

As we have learned with US sanctions on Iraq, and indeed with US sanctions on Cuba and elsewhere, in

This legislation seeks to bring Iran in line with international demands regarding its nuclear materials enri

Mr. Speaker, I am concerned that many of my colleagues opposing war on Iran will vote in favor of this l